GERMAN TIDE HELD UP, WARSAW STILL STANDS

Hard Pressed Russian Armies Are Holding Out,
Even Checking Sweep of German Forces.
Advances Near Riga and Ivangorod.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Aug. 4.—Rear guard fighting of the Russians northwest of Warsaw is so effective that the German tide seems held up.

General von Mackensen's forces on the south are being badly battered as they advance. Warsaw still holds out.

The only German progress today was reported near Riga and Ivangorod.

Germany Doubtful of Roumania.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, Aug. 4.—Count Reventlow today, in the Tages Zeitung, warned the Germans not to expect help from Roumania. He says Roumania has refused to permit the passage of ammunition for the Turks through Roumania.

Allies Work on Greece.

[By Associated Press.]
Athens, Aug. 4.—The British, Russian and Italian Ministers here made a collective visit today to Greek Premier Gounaris. They made united representations about the political situation.

Belgian Steamer Sunk.

[By Associated Press.]
London, Aug. 4.—A German submarine sank the Belgian steamer Koophandel. The crew was saved.

Wilson Still Protests.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Aug. 4.—President Wilson's reply to the British notes rejecting the American demand for relief from interference with neutral commerce, is already ready. It will continue to protest the legality of the British action.

Rumors of Warsaw's Fall.

[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, Aug. 4.—The Overseas News Agency says the Russian Legation at The Hague announces the evacuation of Warsaw. The report is not confirmed from any other source.

Protests Arms Shipments.

[By Associated Press.]
San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 4.—The National German-American Alliance here adopted protests unanimously against the immoral traffic in arms and ammunition.

French Confirm Seizure.

[By Associated Press.]
Paris, Aug. 4.—The French prize court confirms the seizure of the American cotton ship Dacia because she had changed registry from the German flag.

FIFTY ARE DEAD FROM CLOUDBURST

Creek at Erie, Pa., Overflows and Sweeps Away Many Houses.

[By Associated Press.]
Erie, Pa., Aug. 4.—The coroner estimates the dead from last night's overflow of a creek here on account of a cloudburst at fifty. The mayor says it is only twenty-five. It is believed many bodies are still under the wreckage on the creek banks.

Mill creek flooded the city for four blocks on either side from six inches to a foot. On the banks of the creek houses were swept away. One crowded train bound for New York was stopped by washouts standing on a viaduct forty feet above the creek, where for hours the passengers watched the houses sweeping down the torrent beneath them.
